

Art Medium Term Plan

Summer Term Year One

Sculpture

How can we manipulate malleable materials?

How can we change the shape of clay?

How can we join materials to change the shape?

Who is Antony Gormley what sort of artist is he?

Can you create a sculpture in the style of Antony Gormley?

Can you create a group sculpture?

Substantive Knowledge

- know materials can be manipulated to change shape.
- know that changing shape and form is known as sculpting.
- know the techniques rolling, twisting, moulding and construct, change the shape of materials.
- Know how to discuss my thoughts, observations and feelings about artists' work
- know how to work in a group to plan and make a group sculpture.

Disciplinary Knowledge

Art skills

- I know different materials can be used to change form and shape.
- I know that materials can be manipulated using the technique rolling, moulding, twisting, and constructing.

Artist Enquiry

- I know how to explore and experiment with clay and other suitable materials.
- Look and critique different sculptures.

I know how to join materials using techniques, glueing, stapling, split pins, treasury tags	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know how to communicate reasons, thoughts, observations, and feelings about work I have created.
Resources and websites	Vocabulary: (including definitions)
Possible activities Explore clay <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore how to join materials Paper sculpture changing 2d to 3d Plan a group sculpture 	Sculptors- artist that makes sculptures
	Techniques -different ways to carry out a task, eg joining ,moulding
	Antony Gormley- is a sculptor and makes sculptures
EYFS Moulding different materials Joining different materials Using tools

