Knowledge

The learning is based on Jesus summing up the 10 commandments from the Old Testament into two commandments. "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." Mark 12:30-31	Trinity: complete relationship between God (the Father), Jesus (his son) and the Holy Spirit. The three are "consubstantial", which means that they exist separately and together as one. God became incarnate at Christmas and brought God's love for the world to earth in human form. This enquiry also reflects the concept of salvation:	Muslims believe that Allah is perfect. He is the one who made human beings, the one who watches them during life and the one who decides what happens when life is over. Allah should be the most important thing in a Muslim's life – for this reason many Muslims do things every day to make sure they remember Allah like praying 5 times a day. The prayer times are often at difficult times, but this is	Christians believe that Jesus was put to death on a cross and remember this event on Good Friday. They believe that after he died, he was put into a tomb with a stone rolled across the doorway (so something that could not easily be moved especially from the inside). On Easter Sunday, visitors to the tomb (one being Mary Magdalene who was a follower of Jesus) found it empty. Mary then	This enquiry looks at the life of the prophet Muhammad and the part he played in the start of Islam. The Prophet Muhammad is a key person for Muslims. Born and raised in Makkah, Saudi Arabia, he was chosen by Allah (God) to be his messenger. The words Allah gave to Muhammad were later written down and became the Holy Qur'an.	The Qur'an is the holy book for Muslims, but it is also believed to be the actual words of Allah spoken in Arabic, the language chosen by Allah. It is treated with great care. Many Muslims take lessons in how to speak Arabic, including schoolchildren. These classes are often taught in the Mosque, the Muslim place of worship. Muslims believe the Qur'an gives information

Jesus then gave examples of parables and acted in a way to help people around him understand this.	Christians believe that God gave the gift of his son to humanity in order to save them from sin and open up a pathway back to God through the death and resurrection of Jesus Agape: Agape is universal love, such as the love for strangers, nature, or God. It is also called charity.	to show that Muslims should build their day around Allah rather than fit him into their lives when it suits them best. Allah comes first.	saw Jesus in the gardens surrounding the tomb, demonstrating to her that he had risen from the dead. The disciples (Jesus' friends) wrote about these events and their significance in the later books of the New Testament.	Muhammad is special to Muslims, but he is not as special as God – only Allah is God and only Allah should be worshipped. Muhammad is remembered as a good man who worked hard, was honest and listened to Allah.	on how to live life the way Allah would want. The Qur'an is treated with care in the following ways... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Being put on a stand when used, so it is not touched too much. o When not used it is wrapped in a clean cloth o When not being read it should be the highest book in the room o Never being placed on the floor o Hands are washed before it is touched.
